

Title XVII Loan Guarantee Program
2008 Solicitations – General Questions
Frequently Asked Questions

- Q1. If an applicant submits questions which contain or reference confidential commercial information, how would the U.S. Department of Energy Loan Guarantee Program Office protect the confidential nature of the question and answer?
- R1. As set forth in the Solicitation, DOE will respond to questions received with respect to the Solicitation as appropriate and may make applicant's questions and DOE's responses to such questions public, for example, by posting on the Program Website or on FedConnect. Applicants should submit questions only in a form and containing such information as they are willing to have publicly posted.
- Q2. Who are the members of the Credit Review Board? Are there any career members or are they all appointees?
- R2. Membership on the Credit Review Board (CRB or Board) is determined by the terms of the Credit Review Board Charter, which provides that it be composed of:
- the Deputy Secretary of Energy the Chief of Staff to the Secretary of Energy the Under Secretary of Energy the Under Secretary for Science the Assistant Secretary for Policy and International Affairs
the Chief Financial Officer and the General Counsel
- Q3. Is there a public listing of which project sponsors have been awarded loan guarantees pursuant to the first round of solicitations?
- R3. No loan guarantees have been granted to date. A listing of project sponsors invited to submit full applications under the Department's August 2006 solicitation can be found at <http://www.lgprogram.energy.gov/press/100407.html>.
